The mission of G&G Shipping and its employees is to manage the company’s marine transportation assets and related equipment and infrastructure to maximize the services available to and satisfaction of its customers.

G&G Shipping’s employees are central to the success of this endeavor and as such are treated and are required to treat others with respect and support, always putting safety, customer care and environmental responsibility at the forefront of their work.

G&G Shipping will operate the business in a safe and environmentally sound manner, consistent with or better than the local, state, federal and international rules and regulations that govern international trade and transportation.
OUR SERVICES
G&G Shipping offers marine transportation, drayage, stevedoring, cargo loading, agency, wharfage, and terminal services at various locations within South Florida. G&G Shipping’s headquarters, terminal, and warehouse facilities are conveniently located just minutes from I-95, I-595, the Florida Turnpike, the new FEC intermodal rail terminal, Port Everglades and the Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport.

G&G Shipping provides timely, professional, and dependable liner and tailored freight services from South Florida to various international destinations in the region including the Bahamas and the Turks and Caicos. G&G is customer-focused and is adept at tailoring logistics solutions for the most demanding requirements. G&G backs up this approach with experienced staff. G&G’s customer-focused workforce is a cornerstone of its success as a leader in the market.

OUR FLEET
G&G Shipping maintains a modern fleet of vessels and equipment designed to service a wide range of ports. Customers can access unique or difficult locations including undeveloped sites in the Caribbean from low banks, beaches, or locations accessible only with G&G’s specialized shallow-draft vessels.

G&G accommodates a wide variety of cargo, from small packages to full container loads, heavy construction equipment and break-bulk cargoes. From the arrival of your shipment to final delivery, G&G will track your freight to ensure safe and prompt delivery. A professional G&G Shipping customer service representative will assist you through the entire process.
